Fairway to Heaven... Through the elegant oversized entry doors lies this 3 bd/3 ba private oasis. This gorgeous home in "The Legacy" at Mission Hills C.C. has it all. Casual elegance, privacy, and open spaces abound. The richly upgraded open floor plan with high ceilings and the wonderful flow between the indoor and outdoor spaces, front and rear are perfect for desert living and entertaining. Situated near the 15th tee of the Pete Dye Private Course, this home sits on one of the most desirable lots in this upscale community, with spectacular mountain and course views. The lush landscaping and gentle rolling hills create a sense of intimate country living, yet provide the perfect backdrop for the fantastic private pool with multiple water features. The great room offers generous proportions with fireplace, service bar and large built-in Sub Zero wine cooler. The open kitchen has slab granite counters with large center island, built-in cook top and professional grade stainless steel appliances. The generous master suite features a large private patio and fantastic views of the lush landscape. The large secluded front courtyard provides a myriad of intimate outdoor entertaining possibilities. The extra spacious spa with water feature and cozy fireplace anchors this intimate space. The adjacent freestanding casita provides a private yet separate space for family or guests.
